

April 15, 2008

Wolf Robotics – The Company

We are an innovative, customer focused, robotic arc welding and cutting systems solution provider for North American manufacturers. We improve our customer's productivity – significantly. We are a group of highly motivated and talented individuals focused on growing our business. We recognize that we need to add talented, motivated individuals to our group to succeed in this growth objective.

Intern Assembly Technician– Job Description

Compensation

$11.00 / hour

Job Scope

This job involves supporting the integration of large, custom robotic welding systems including: mechanical assembly, electrical sub assembly and tear down.

Primary responsibilities

Electrical sub-assembly

Mechanical assembly

Teardown equipment and package for shipping

Technical Skills Required

- Experience in mechanical and electrical assembly.
- Must have the ability to read and interpret electrical and mechanical prints.
- Ability to use common hand tools, Digital Volt Meter and oscilloscope.
- Good verbal and written communication skills are required.

Behavioral Skills Required

- Strong interpersonal skills
- Team oriented
- Hardworking, driven
- Ability to work independently with little supervision

Key Measurements

Key measurements will include:

- Ability to build electrical and mechanical assemblies at high quality
- Ability to work productively

Please submit resume via email to:

Darren Pape
Operations Manager
970-225-7736
darren.pape@wolfrobotics.com