Choose your own adventure with an experience abroad. Learn from ME students about their abroad experiences and connect with an advisor to fit one into your grad plan.

Arguably the most important program in ME, learn to tame the beast that is MATLAB and use it effectively in future classes!

From labs and research to internships and leadership experience, there are many ways to prepare for industry. Learn from others about how they are preparing for their career.

Almost any project you dream up can be enhanced with an Arduino. Learn the basics of electronics wiring and the Arduino programming language in order to take your projects to the next level!