

ECE students sought after at Spring Career Fair!

Scores of local and regional companies participated in CSU's Spring Career Fair at the Lory Student Center on February 12. Of those in attendance, more employers were seeking Electrical Engineering students than any other major on campus.

Companies recruiting for ECE students and graduates

Agilent Technologies (www.agilent.com)
American Council of Engineering Co (www.acec.org)
Anheuser-Busch Company (www.anheuser-busch.com)
Ball Aerospace & Technologies Corp. (www.ball.com/aerospace)
Bureau of Reclamation (www.usbr.gov)
EchoStar Communications (www.echostar.com)
Engineering Ministries International (www.emiusa.org)
Enginuity (www.enginuity.org)
Hewlett-Packard (www.hp.com)
IBM Corporation (www.ibm.com)
INROADS (www.inroads.org)
Lockheed Martin (www.lockheedmartin.com)
Miner & Miner (www.miner.com)
Northrop Grumman Corporation (www.northgrum.com)
Plexus Technology Group (www.plexus.com)
Raytheon Company (www.raytheon.com)
Siemens Building Technologies (www.sbt.siemens.com)
Spectra Logic Corporation (www.spectrallogic.com)
Sun Microsystems (www.sun.com)
URS Corporation (www.urscorp.com)
US Army Corps of Engineers (www.usace.army.mil)
Visa/Inovant (www.inovant.com)
Washington Group International-Denver (www.wgint.com)
Xcel Energy (www.xcelenergy.com)