

MECHANICAL ENGINEERING

COLORADO STATE UNIVERSITY

Thank you for your interest in studying mechanical engineering! This information is intended for currently enrolled CSU students who have begun coursework. If you're a recently admitted student, but have not yet begun courses, you should contact the Office of Admissions for change of major inquiries.

Follow the flowchart to the right to determine whether you are eligible to change your major to mechanical engineering. To access appeals, forms, and advisor contact information, visit the website below.

www.engr.colostate.edu/me/change-of-major

START HERE

Are you currently a student in the Walter Scott, Jr. College of Engineering?

— If you answer "yes", follow the green line
— If you answer "no", follow the red line

Is it after the last day of class of your second semester at CSU?

Is it after the last day of class of your first semester at CSU?

Do you have a cumulative CSU AND STEM GPA ≥ 2.0 ?

Do you have a cumulative CSU GPA ≥ 2.75 ; B- or better in Calculus I or a higher, required, math course; and a B- or better in PH 141 or CHEM 111?

Follow the change of major process.

Not eligible for an automatic change of major. Consider submitting an appeal.

To determine if you are eligible to change your major, email mmarkham@colostate.edu

Follow the change of major process.

Not eligible for an automatic change of major. Consider submitting an appeal.